

Marguerite Guskey, Manager of Travel Services | The Pennsylvania State University

Marguerite Gustkey began her career in Travel at HRB-Singer, Inc., which was then a cost reimbursable contractor division of The Singer Company doing SIGINT, ELINT AND COMINT for various Federal government and military agencies. In her position at HRB-Singer, she was responsible for the booking of all business travel, which included scheduling and support for the corporate aircraft and pilot staff.

Marguerite came to Penn State in 1987 with the task of developing a travel management program. Penn State's program evolved in 1993 to include a University-owned ARC approved full-service department and today serves the travel needs of all 24 campuses throughout the commonwealth, including Intercollegiate Athletics and its 29 Division I teams.

She is a member of GBTA, having earned the SBTP Certification and has served on the former NBTA Airline Committee and the PBTA Education Committee. She is a member of the Big Ten Car Rental Committee, has served on the board of the Society for Collegiate Travel and Expense Management since the board's inception and served as previous program chair.
