

Paul Van Dieren, Assistant Controller, Payment & Procurement Services | University of Notre Dame

Paul is an Assistant Controller at the University of Notre Dame and has worked in higher education for over 10 years. Paul's oversees the University's Procurement, Payroll, and Accounts Payable departments. Paul served as the project owner for the recently implemented travel & expense program at the University.

Prior to joining Notre Dame, Paul was Director of Tax & Treasury Services at a publicly traded manufacturing company. Paul also worked for the accounting firm Price Waterhouse in both the tax and auditing areas.

Paul graduated from Indiana University – Bloomington with a bachelor's degree in Accounting and earned an MBA from the University of Notre Dame. Paul is a Certified Public Accountant.